

NEW BROCHURE IS A “MUST” FOR EVERY HEATING INSTALLER’S SHELF

Familiar, trusted products and the surprise of finding many other energy- and time-saving products

BRACKNELL, UK, 9 May 2003 – Honeywell’s new fact-filled booklet “100 Good Reasons to choose Honeywell” is a “must” for every heating specifier’s shelf. It lists over 100 systems, products and components from the world’s leading controls manufacturer that cover the great majority of heating and hot water requirements in homes and light commercial buildings – for radiator and underfloor heating systems.

Installers will recognise many familiar, trusted friends and are bound to discover many energy- and time-saving products and accessories they hadn’t associated with Honeywell. Bonus pages include the requirements of the latest Building Regulations and an illustrated guide to all the industry-standard Honeywell Sundial Plans: S, S+, Y, W and C.
